

Default Rating for Countries

We have now implemented an important feature to aid quick shipment pricing: default rating locations for countries. For each country we define a location for pricing. When users quote international shipments it is now possible to specify only the country and retrieve a price. This is useful for quickly gauging the cost of an international shipment but additional fees such as remote area charges will not be presented.