Customising Footer Blocks

Today we implemented a means to customise the footer blocks that appear at the bottom of every page. Partners and resellers can now choose what appears in these blocks, whether they are links to the site or external links.

This is configured by partners only so resellers must submit the request to their partner administrator.